OREGON NATIONAL GUARD.

Companies Leave Salem For Camp Compson, Near Oregon City

The armory on State street was a scene of great activity this afternoon. Scores of militia men in bright uniforms were rushing around getting into place, finding their gripsacks, strapping on their knapsacks, and waving farewells to their best girls who were hanging around in a most tantalizingly affectionate manner.

H AND B COMPANIES went about fifty strong. Battalion Commander Major Sherman and Battalion Adjutant Lieut. Robin, were in full uniform. H company was officered as follows: M. L. Myers, Capt.; R. H. Leabo, 1st Lieut. B company went under command of Lieut. Percy Willis, Lieut. I. W. Berry. Officers and men were in fatigue uniform and marched out of the armory at 1 p. m. At the S. P. depot lines were formed and hearty cheers greeted C company, of Eugene, as the train pulled in.

THE START. was made in great shape. A special car was side-tracked for the Salem boys and the blue coats had it all to themselves. It was taken advantage of by a number to get a holiday from business and the Queen Capital City of the Pacific coast will be well represented. For a volunteer affair, it was a splendid turn out, and the boys will do credit to the National guard. They are gone for eight days. THE JOURNAL is official paper for the camp, having its one representative and a subscription list that will read the daily news from home fresh every morning.

THEOSOPHY IN SALEM.

Free Lectures on the Subject to be Given.

Dr. Allen Griffiths, of San Francisco, Pacific coast lecturer on Theosophy, is now touring the coast. He has already lectured in the principal cities, and has just arrived in this city. Dr. Griffiths presents Theosophy as a rational philosophy which throws light upon many perplexing problems of life and death, the origin, development and destiny of the race, and kindred topics not comprehensively considered by other systems. Theosophy, he claims, appeals to students and thinkers who are dissatisfied with current conceptions and search for more light thereon.

Cultivated audiences have greeted Dr. Griffiths everywhere, and he has been cordially received by both public and press. While in Salem he will deliver two lectures in the Unitarian church as follows: Monday, Aug. 14th, subject, "Theosophy, Adepts and Cycles;" Wednesday, Aug. 16th, "Karma and Reincarnation; Have we Lived Before, Shall we Live Again on this Planet." Both lectures will be free and begin at 8 o'clock. All are invited, especially students and thinkers.

HENRY GILFREY OUT.

Senator Hill Asks for the Oregonian's Removal.

Senator Hill, of New York, named for his only apolotee Colonel John A. McEwen, of New York, who is to be principal legislative clerk, in place of Henry H. Gilfrey, of Oregon, who has held this position a good many years. Colonel McEwen is a personal friend of Senator Hill, and met him in his Southern tour last fall.

Mr. Gilfrey is well known all over Oregon, having passed the greater part of his boyhood and early manhood in this state. He was a graduate from the Willamette university at Salem, and for nearly eight years was private secretary to Governor Grover. He has been a resident of Washington, D. C., for more than 12 years, and during most of that time he held the responsible position of chief legislative clerk in the United States senate. That he has been supplanted by Colonel McEwen will be a source of regret to Mr. Gilfrey's many friends in Oregon and elsewhere. He was considered a faithful, careful and efficient officer.

Mr. Gilfrey had some pardonable, harmless vanities, and among them was his assertion that he bore a strong personal resemblance to Senator Hill. He has stated to friends that he has often been mistaken for the New Yorker when in Washington. A Portland man, when he heard of Mr. Gilfrey's removal, remarked: "Well, perhaps Senator Hill did not want the mistake to occur again."

GILFREY SAVED.

A later dispatch says: Senator Hill of New York, named for his only apolotee the principal legislative clerk, in place of C. W. Johnson of Minnesota. Johnson has held this position a good many years.

H. H. Gilfrey, of Oregon, has not been displaced in the senate, as erroneously stated. He is one of the men designated to remain. He is a Democrat. It is scarcely to be expected that Charles Newell will remain. Gilfrey has served during the Republican ascendancy in the senate with satisfaction.

THE PERKINS FAMILY TROUBLE

The Woman Disturber to be Shipped East.

M. D. C. Perkins is an unfortunate man who lives in Yew Park. He has for several years used two canes and has been unable to walk a good share of the time. His father has made his home with them until recently when Mrs. Perkins made it so hot for him that he had to go elsewhere to board, as being so far he says as to draw a big carving knife on him.

Campbell was for years a Baptist preacher, but of recent years went over to the United Brethren. He disappeared some time since and is supposed to be in Southern Oregon. He has been trying to arrange to get Mrs. Perkins away, with her oldest boy.

Judge Hubbard has had no letter from Mrs. Perkins' father in Chapman, Dickenson county, Kansas, though he has been trying his best to get the woman shipped out of his neighborhood. Mrs. Perkins probably has a story of her own in regard to the whole trouble.

BAD MONEY.—This afternoon Deputy Sheriff H. J. Day, of Eugene, brought one Gilman to Salem for imprisonment. He is under arrest as a counterfeiter, and is supposed to be one of the band now under arrest at Portland.

Price Thorp and Riley Thomas were doing business in Salem Tuesday. Henry Keene was in Salem on business Saturday. Mr. A. Clark, of Salem, an old pioneer of this section, was visiting friends in Stayton Wednesday.

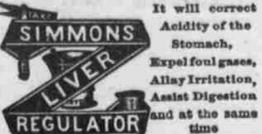

Walter Lyon came up from southern Oregon Saturday, stopped over Sunday in Stayton and Mehama. J. H. Albert, the banker of Salem, passed through here on his way to Mehama Sunday. Joseph Kuerton, of the Salem Soap and Chemical works, gave us a pleasant call Friday.—Stay-Times.

A. W. Scott, the contractor and builder, who built the Oregon Hotel and other houses in Ashland, was divorced from his wife at Salem some time ago, and on July 23rd married Miss Mattie A. Powell, of Yolo, Cal. Henry Brophy, of Salem, a brother of Mrs. Kate Beeson, arrived yesterday for visit of a week or two at Talent.—Ashland Tidings.

As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., it hardly ever fails to do good. It is a good medicine. I would not be without it.—W. J. McELROY, Macon, Ga.

PRESBYTERIAN.—Rev. I. J. KUORT of Portland, Or., will preach at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow, at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Merchant James Aitken and daughters are home from Newport.

Dr. A. F. Jeffreys is in Portland for a few days.

N. M. Garretson is in Portland.

Herbert Button the insurance man is at Portland.

THAT TAX.—A. D. Pettyjohn considers the way the assessors treated his Chinamen an outrage. Three Chinamen, who are renters on the place were asked to pay $1.00 apiece poll tax. Not putting up readily he says the officers collared one of them and marched him towards the cabins where they live, to raise them and take their goods. One of the Chinese drew a saw and the officer laid him out with a club, so that he had to come up to town and have it sewed up. It seems the Chinese are proverbial tax shirkers and the officers are forced to use rough treatment to get anything out of them.

NEW TO-DAY.
